A.R.T.S. Comes to Clairmont

by Dave Konstantin

A.R.T.S., A Reason to Survive is a non profit organization dedicated to healing, inspiring and empowering children facing life challenges by providing innovative arts-based programs, education and opportunities. They have a facility in Liberty Station and also do outreach and community art projects.

Recently A.R.T.S. worked on a project at Clairmont's Ross Elementary school campus. The school is now adorned with amazing mosaic and painted murals created by artist Robb Tobin from A.R.T.S., in conjunction with High Tech Middle School and USD Service / Learning. Volunteers and artists worked with the children to conceptualize and create the giant art. Principal Tim Suanico was very excited about the project and very grateful for the new murals.

A.R.T.S. is holding their annual fundraiser at The new Hilton San Diego Bayfront on May 16th. Exploring the theme "From Jazz to Rock & Bach Again", they invite you to indulge in a one-of-a-kind dining experience featuring exquisite cuisine from the most sought after chefs in San Diego lead by Culinary Chair Andrew Spurgin, enjoy rockin' concerts put on by ARTS youth and phenomenal local musicians including Clairmont's own Road Dogs Band.
